#6 Cloverleaf's Rich's Ale • 5.6% ABV • Pale Ale

Brewed by Alementary for our 85th Anniversary...In 1977, a happy accident happened. Richard Dorchak, 2nd generation owner of the Cloverleaf, had a slight disagreement with a certain red bow tied beer company. The conclusion being sell every beer brand EXCEPT the red bow tied bottles, Richard was a man of his word and began bringing in hard to find beers from across the country and world. This Pale Ale, traditional in style, also has a touch of modern by utilizing two separate dry-hop additions. Enjoy this ale anywhere fine burgers are sold and certain beers are not. 6.5
