

Spring Seasonal Brews

#1 Ayinger Celebrator • 6.7% ABV • Doppelbock

A beer that has a dominant malty taste. This beer's origins in a monk's recipe are reflected in its heartiness. The Pope of Beers, Conrad Seidl, describes it as: "Almost black with a very slight red tone, a sensational, festive foam and truly extraordinary fragrance that at first summons up visions of greaves lard. The first taste is of mild fullness with an accompanying coffee tone, which becomes more dominant with the aftertaste. There is very little of the sweetness that is frequently to be tasted with doppelbock beer." 12oz $7.5

#2 Ommegang Pale Sour • 6.9% ABV • Sour Ale

A beautifully clean and balanced sour beer that drinks like a fine white wine. Pale Sour pours a bright golden hue with a brilliant white head. The flavor is an elegant interplay of subtle sweet malt, and clean lactic sour 12oz $7.5

#3 River Horse Mocha Lisa • 9% ABV • Imperial Porter

Brewed with oats, lactose, vanilla, and cocoa, then aged on Ugandan coffee beans 16oz can $8.5

#4 Hitachino Nest Red Rice • 7% ABV • Specialty Grain Ale

This Red Rice Ale was brewed with special red rice which had been cultured in ancient times in Japan. Please enjoy the complex taste and beautiful natural color. The ale has complex Sake like flavours with a hint of strawberry in the nose and palate 12oz $10.5

#5 Allagash Sun Drift • 6.7% ABV • Wild Fruit Ale

Brewed with lemon zest for a slightly tart profile. Fermented with Brettanomyces yeast and blended with hot steeped black tea from Little Red Cup. The result evokes the refreshing combination of lemonade and tea, all cruising on a layer of fruit-filled aromatics 12oz $8.5

#6 Rothaus Pils • 5.1% ABV • German Pilsner

Using the best aroma hops from Tettnang and the Hallertau, domesticating malt from the summer barley and pure spring water from the high Black Forest give this Pilsner its unique spiciness and fresh taste 12oz $6.5

#7 Konig Ludwig • 5.5% ABV • Hefeweizen

This is Royal Bavarian Hefeweizen. Why are the Bavarian Royal Family and King Ludwig so important to brewing history? The Bavarian Royal Family had sole rights to brewing Hefe-Weizen on Bavaria for over 200 years. No wonder we are the leading experts on wheat beers! 12oz $6.5

#8 Ballast Point Lager • 4.2% ABV • Lager

An all 2-row malt grain bill is brewed to reduce gluten and is cold fermented to produce a clean, low calorie lager that finishes dry and effervescent Draft $6.0

Spring Hop Brews

1 Captain Lawrence Rotational Can • New England IPA

Tears of Green, Powder Dreams and Orbital Tilt. We'll be rotating between the three releases
16oz can $8.5

#2 Dogfish Head Perfect Disguise • 8% ABV • DIPA

On the surface, The Perfect Disguise looks like a straightforward Kölsch with a crisp Kölsch yeast and traditional German malts and hops ... but things aren't always what they seem. With a quick sniff and a slight sip, you're greeted by a creamy mouthfeel and full body thanks to the addition of a unique German chit malt - the first hint that this beer may be somewhat different. Hiding deeper behind that German disguise is the double dry-hopping of an American Double IPA, with nearly 4 lbs. of German and American hops per barrel. It brings tropical flavors of citrus, tangerine, mango, gooseberries and peach 12oz $7.5

Spring Draft Brews

#1 Carton The Hook • 5.5% ABV • Pale Ale

It doesn't matter what we brew as long as we mix wheat and citra. That makes us feel we'll convey some juicy notes or fruit impression. To confuse the issue we will add some pleasant yeast, from far away. Plus some Vic Secret for good measure. No matter how much we resist the bend, some dry-hopping causes our resolve to break because the hops bring us back. On that we can rely the hops bring us back $6.5

#2 Founders Blushing Monk • 9.2% ABV • Fruit

When our love of fruit and our love of beer come together, Blushing Monk happens. Brewed with a ridiculous amount of raspberries for tart yet luscious raspberry-jam character and fermented with Belgian yeast for subtle fruit and spice esters. Think of Blushing Monk as Rubaeus' older sibling – more intense, slightly larger and just a little bit more mature 12oz $8.5

#3 Firestone Walker Mind Haze • 6.2% ABV • NEIPA

From the coast of California comes Mind Haze, a free-spirited beer made to elevate your perceptions—juicy yet balanced, hazy yet lasting, and loaded with an imaginative array of tropical hop flavors. In the words of Brewmaster Matt Brynildson, “Mind Haze offers the best of what you expect from a hazy IPA. But we're going about it a little differently, and that's what gives Mind Haze its own unique signature. We're finally ready to do a hazy IPA the Firestone way.” $6.5

#2 New Belgium Mural • 4% ABV • Agua Fresca Cerveza

Two breweries, two countries, one goal: To brew a revolutionary new beer style in the spirit of international collaboration. Meet Mural Agua Fresca Ale, an innovative new concept in craft beer that merges the tradition of Mexico's refreshing agua fresca drinks with the ingenuity and craftsmanship of two breweries: New Belgium and Mexico City's premiere craft brewery, Cervecería Primus. And it all started with a trip to Tijuana. This agua fresca ale features hibiscus, agave, watermelon and lime for a fresh, vibrant sip. Settling of sediment may occur as Mural is unfiltered in the agua fresca tradition $6.5
